Westfield State Normal School.

THIS INSTITUTION is one of the four State Normal Schools under the direction of the Massachusetts Board of Education. It was first opened at Barre, September 4, 1839, and re-opened at Westfield, September 4, 1844.

CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP.

Male applicants for admission to the School must be at least seventeen years of age; female applicants sixteen. There must be an explicit declaration that the applicant intends to become a teacher in the schools of Massachusetts. The applicant must give a pledge to remain in the School at least three terms, the first two of which shall be consecutive.

Candidates for admission must present themselves at the schoolroom on the first day of the term, at 9 o'clock A. M., and pass a satisfactory examination in Reading, Writing, Spelling, Defining, English Grammar, Geography, and Arithmetic. There will be an examination at no other time during the term, except for special reasons.

Each applicant must present a certificate of good intellectual, and moral character from some responsible person.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The following is the course of study, without regard to the order in which the branches will be pursued, or the length of time devoted to them :

Geography, Physical and Political, with use of Globes and Outline Maps; Arithmetic; Grammar, and Analysis; Physiology; History of United States; General History, with Ancient Geography; Natural History; Algebra; Geometry;

Natural Philosophy, with Experiments; Chemistry, with Experiments; Astronomy; History and Structure of the English Language, with Analysis of Milton and other Poets; School Laws of Massachusetts, and General Principles of Government; Theory and Art of Teaching, with Mental Philosophy; Rhetoric.

Reading, Writing, Elementary Sounds, Etymology, Spelling, Vocal Music, Composition, Recitations of Select Pieces, Extempore Speaking, Discussions, and Moral Philosophy, extend through the whole course.

Botany, Drawing, Latin, and French are optional.

The pupils have daily teaching exercises in connection with the recitations, and the members of the Senior Class devote a large portion of their time to the Theory and Art of Teaching.

Every Wednesday afternoon is devoted to the exercises of the Lyceum conducted by the students.

Every pupil who honorably completes the Course of Study is entitled to the regular Diploma of the Institution, which does not hold itself responsible for any others, although they may have been members of the School.

There will be an Advanced Class, which will enable the Graduates of the School to continue their studies beyond the prescribed course.

EXAMINATIONS.

A public Examination is held at the close of each Term, under the direction of the Board of Visitors.

The School is at all times open to inspection, and the friends of education are invited to visit it at their convenience.

LIBRARY AND APPARATUS.

The School now possesses a well selected Library of Reference Books, to which the students have daily access. Text Books in all the required studies are furnished to the students without charge.

The Adams Library contains about seven hundred volumes of well-selected, standard books. This Library was founded by the students, and is subject to their control.

Valuable additions have been made to the Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus. Students are encouraged to furnish, as far as possible, their own illustrations.

TUITION.

Tuition is free to all those who intend to teach in the public schools of Massachusetts; but those intending to teach in other States, or in private schools, or failing to teach in accordance with the spirit of their pledge, are required to pay a reasonable fee for tuition.

At the commencement of every term, each pupil pays $1,50 to meet incidental expenses.

BOARD.

The price of board varies from $2,50 to $2,75 a week.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.

The year is divided into two Terms. The Spring Term commences the fourth Wednesday in March, and the Fall Term the fourth Wednesday in September.

The Spring Term is preceded by a vacation of four weeks, and the Fall Term by a Vacation of eight weeks.

SCHOOL REGULATIONS.

Pupils are expected to attend public worship on the Sabbath, at any church they may select.

At least one hour of exercise in the open air is required each day, weather and health permitting.

All study hours are to be spent in perfect quietness, and without communication.

The hour for retiring is quarter past ten, at all seasons of the year. Pupils must devote a proper amount of time to sleep. Six hours of undisturbed repose is the minimum. Unseasonable rising and study will be regarded as a violation of the rules of the Institution.

No absence or tardiness is allowed, except in extreme cases.

Every absence from town must be on leave previously obtained from the Principal.

PECUNIARY AID.

The State appropriates one thousand dollars a year for each of the State Normal Schools, to aid those students who are unable to meet the expenses of the school. This aid is not furnished during the first thirteen weeks of attendance. After that time, those who reside less than twenty miles from the school receive fifty cents per week; those over twenty and less than thirty, one dollar; and those over thirty, one dollar and fifty cents,—provided the applications are not so numerous as to require a reduction of these amounts.

Applications for this aid must be made to the Principal in writing, stating the reason, and giving good reference.

This aid is furnished to those only who remain and complete the prescribed course of study, the first two terms of which must be consecutive. Pupils who fail to comply with this condition are expected to refund any amount they may have received. It is also expected that pupils who fail to teach in the public schools of Massachusetts will return any amount they may have received from the bounty of the State.

WESTFIELD NORMAL ASSOCIATION.

This Association was formed in September, 1847, and is composed of the past and present members of the School. The Jubilees of the Association are held triennially.

The officers of the Association are William L. P. Boardman, Boston, President; A. B. Clapp, A. C. Robbins, Maro Kendall, Vice Presidents; C. A. Richardson, Boston, Secretary and Treasurer; Charles Gates, J. G. Scott, J. C. Greenough, B. F. Parsons, A. G. Smith, Councillors.

To the Public.

The Adams Library was founded in 1858.

It now numbers about seven hundred volumes.

These have been acquired by purchase and by donation from members, or friends of the School.

The names of the donors, so far as they could be ascertained by the Committee of Publication, appear in the catalogue against the names of the books donated.

The acknowledgements of the Association are due to various publishing houses, especially in the city of Boston, for liberal donations of valuable works. The Library is to be increased in the future as it has been in the past. The smallest favors thankfully received.

CONSTITUTION

OF THE

Normal Lyceum and Library ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE I.

Name.

This Society shall be called the Normal Lyceum and Library Association.

ARTICLE II.

Officers.

The officers of this Society shall consist of a President, Vice President, a Recording and Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer and Librarian.

ARTICLE III.

Duties of the President.

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all regular meetings of this Society, and make the following appointments: a Critic, an Orator, two for Recitations, and six for debate; said appointments, with the exception of the Critic, to be made in alphabetic order and two weeks previous to the performance of duty.

SECTION 2. The President in the performance of his duties, shall be guided by the directions given in Cushing's Manual.

ARTICLE IV.

Duties of the Vice President.

It shall be the duty of the Vice President to preside in the absence of the President, and at such other times as the President may desire.

ARTICLE V.

Duties of the Secretary.

It shall be the duty of the Recording and Corresponding Secretary to keep a faithful record of the proceedings of each meeting, and to read the same at the opening of the succeeding meeting; and he shall be the organ of the Society in all its conference with the public.

ARTICLE VI.

Duties of the Treasurer.

It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive all moneys belonging to the Society, and to keep a true account of all receipts and expenditures. He shall make no payment without a written order from the President, countersigned by the Secretary, and he shall report the state of the Treasury whenever required by a resolution of the House.

ARTICLE VII.

Duties of the Librarian.

It shall be the duty of the Librarian to take charge of all books belonging to the Society, to keep an account of all books drawn from the Library, and check the same when returned. He shall assess, collect and transfer to the Treasurer all fines due on books.

ARTICLE VIII.

Elections.

The officers of this Society shall be chosen by ballot.

ARTICLE IX.

Tenure of Office.

The officers of this Society shall hold their respective offices during a half Term.

ARTICLE X.

Quorum.

Twelve members of this Society shall constitute a quorum for transacting business.

ARTICLE XI.

Amendments.

This Constitution may be amended at any regular meeting of this Society, by a two-thirds vote of the members present; but every amendment shall be proposed in writing, at least one week before its adoption.

By-Laws.

ARTICLE I.

Meetings.

SECTION 1.—The meetings of this Society shall be held on Wednesday afternoon of each week during the term of School, unless otherwise ordered by a vote of the House.

SECTION 2.—The meetings of this Society shall not continue more than two hours, except by a vote of the House.

ARTICLE II.

Order of Exercises.

The exercises of this Society shall be in the following order:

1.—Calling to order by the President.
2.—Reading of the Secretary's Report.
3.—Disposal of the Secretary's Report.
4.—Appointments by the President.
5.—Miscellaneous Business.
6.—Orations.
7.—Recitations.
8.—Reading.
9.—Report of the Critic.

RECESS.

10.—Drawing of Books.
11.—Discussion of the Question.
12.—Decision of the Question.
13.—Critic's Report.
14.—Adjournment.

ARTICLE III.

Presiding Officers.

SECTION 1.—It shall be the duty of the Presiding officer to preserve order; the same order that is observed in the common recitations of the Westfield Normal School. He may speak to all points of order in preference to other members, and shall decide all questions of order subject to an appeal to the House, and no other business shall be in order until the question of appeal shall have been decided.

SECTION 2.—The Presiding Officer shall put all general questions in the following order: Those who are in favor of this motion or amendment (as the case may be) say "I" (aye); those opposed, say "no" (nay). He shall declare all votes; but if any member calls for a division of the House, the Presiding Officer shall order a return of the number voting in the Affirmative and in the Negative, and the members so voting shall rise, and stand until they can be counted.

SECTION 3.—The Presiding Officer shall propound all questions in the order in which they are moved, unless the subsequent motion be previous in its nature, except that in naming sums and fixing times, the largest sum and the longest time shall be put first.

SECTION 4.—When a question is under debate, the Presiding Officer shall receive no motion, but to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone to a day certain, to amend, or to postpone indefinitely, except by unanimous consent; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they stand arranged.

SECTION 5.—The Presiding Officer shall rise to put a question, or to address the House; but he may perform any other duties of his office sitting.

ARTICLE IV.

Members.

SECTION 1.—Any member of the Normal School may become a member of this Society, by subscribing to the Constitution and By-Laws, but shall not enjoy the privileges of the Library, except by the payment of twenty-five cents to the Treasurer of this Society.

SECTION 2.—Every member, when about to speak, shall rise and respectfully address the Presiding Officer, shall confine himself to the question under debate, shall avoid personalities, and shall sit down when he has finished speaking.

SECTION 3.—The member speaking shall be in possession of the floor, and shall not be interrupted by another member, unless the member interrupting rise to call to order; and no other member shall be allowed to speak, except by the permission of the member speaking.

ARTICLE V.

Honorary Members.

SECTION 1.—Any person may be elected an honorary member of this Society, by a unanimous vote of the members present at any regular meeting. He shall be entitled to all the privileges of a member, except holding office, or voting upon any question or motion.

SECTION 2.—Upon the election of an honorary member, it shall be the duty of the Secretary to transmit to the person thus elected, a copy of the proceedings of the Society in reference thereto.

ARTICLE VI.

Miscellaneous Business.

The time for transacting miscellaneous business shall not exceed twenty minutes, unless otherwise ordered by a vote of the House.

ARTICLE VII.

Motions.

SECTION 1.—After a motion has been made, it shall be deemed in possession of the House, and shall be disposed of by a vote of the House; but the mover may withdraw it at any time before decision or amendment, except it be a motion to reconsider, which motion shall not be withdrawn after the time has elapsed within which it could have been originally made.

SECTION 2.—All questions shall be considered debatable, except a motion to adjourn, to lay on the table, or to take up from the table.

ARTICLE VIII.

Discussion.

SECTION 1.—The speakers shall be arranged in alphabetic order, and perform their duty in regular rotation. Six members shall take part in every debate, unless otherwise ordered by a vote of the House; and it shall be the duty of the President to designate which two of the six shall be the leading disputants; but no member shall be obliged to speak two weeks in succession.

SECTION 2.—All questions for general discussion shall be presented in the form of a bill or resolve, at least one week before the time of debate; and they shall then receive their first reading that the House may be duly informed of the subject matter, which is to come before it for consideration.

SECTION 3.—All questions except a motion to adjourn, may be amended or discussed; but no question or proposition different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment.

SECTION 4.—No person shall speak more than ten minutes at any one time, except by a vote of the House.

SECTION 5.—The Presiding officer may, at his discretion, extend to any person not a member of this Society, an invitation to speak on the question.

ARTICLE IX.

Decision.

The merits of the question shall be decided by a direct vote of the House upon the passage of the bill or resolve under consideration; but the Presiding Officer shall decide in regard to weight of argument.

ARTICLE X.

Books.

SECTION 1.—All books, pamphlets, &c., shall be legibly marked with the words NORMAL LYCEUM LIBRARY, and, if donations to the Society, shall be inscribed with the name of the donor, in such manner as the Librarian may deem proper.

SECTION 2.—No member shall be allowed to draw more than one book at any one time.

SECTION 3.—No member shall be allowed to draw any book from the Library except at the regular meetings, unless by consent of the Librarian.

ARTICLE XI.

SECTION 1.—Any member retaining a book more than one week, shall pay a fine of two cents for each additional day said book is retained.

SECTION 2.—Any person soiling or otherwise injuring any book, shall be subject to such fine as the Librarian may deem proper.

SECTION 3.—Every book shall be returned in good condition, regard being had to its reasonable wear; and, if any book be lost or essentially injured, the member to whom it stands charged shall replace it by a new volume or set, if it belongs to a set, or pay the current price of the same.

SECTION 4.—No book shall be delivered to any member, until all sums due the Society from him or her shall have been paid.

SECTION 5.—No book shall be lent by any member, under a penalty of ten cents.

ARTICLE XII.

Amendments.

These By-Laws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any regular meeting.
